Chateh Flood Evacuation

The community of Chateh has been evacuated due to Flooding. Dene Tha' First Nation had to safely evacuate their members Sunday June 20, 2021, thus requiring many people needing basic items including food and water. As such, we are collecting the following donations:

- Water
- Baby Supplies including diapers, wipes and baby food, formula, etc.
- Canned goods, milk, coffee, tea, sugar and coffee mate, snacks, condiments etc.
- Toiletries including shampoo, conditioner, soap, pads, toothpaste, feminine products, etc.
- PPE (hand sanitizing wipes, masks, hand sanitizers, gloves, work gloves, safety vests, etc.)
- Eye wash, Band-Aids, and small first aid kits or supplies.
- Food packaging & Take Out containers including paper plates, cups, utensils, napkins

We are also accepting cash donation, visa or gift cards to help us purchase these things for the people that need them.

If you or your organization can donate, please bring your donation item(s) to either of the following locations – we are arranging delivery of these much needed supplies to the affected people:

Monday to Friday between 8:30 am to 4:30 pm at:

- 📍 Four Chiefs Complex in Bushe River, AB or
- 📍 Chateh Arena, Chateh AB or

- 📍 Treaty 8 First Nations of Alberta Sub Office
18178 - 102 Ave NW, Edmonton, AB
1-888-TREATY-8 or 780-444-9366

For more information, please do not hesitate to contact the office at 780-444-9366 or 1-888-873-2898.

We appreciate your support!
